BUTTERFLY CHOICE—A good headed, big roomy, deep and lowset cow, the kind everyone would like to have for a brood cow. She is sired by the $2,325 Leewood Trademark 2nd, and out of a granddaughter of Imp. Bapton Royal Leader. She sells with an outstanding April 11th red heifer calf at foot by the good young sire Archer's Air Raid whose first three steer calves averaged $350 in the 1962 Spencer Calf Sale, and one of his first daughters stood either first or second in class at three state fairs and three strong district fairs. This could be a very valuable combination.
